

Roald Dahl – Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Activities

Before you read

Discuss

Do you like eating chocolate? Which chocolates do you like best? Tell your friends.

The dossier this week is about a man called Roald Dahl. He wrote a story called Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.

After Reading activities

Complete the sentences with the correct names from the box.

Roald Dahl	Mr Cadbury	Charlie Bucket
Johnny Depp	Willy Wonka	Roald Amundsen

- _____ wrote the story of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.
- _____ stars in the film of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.
- _____ is a poor boy who lives near a chocolate factory.
- _____ invites Charlie to visit his chocolate factory.
- _____ was a famous Norwegian explorer.
- _____ had a chocolate factory near Roald Dahl's school.

Find the words which complete the sentences.

1. Roald Dahl's parents came from ...	a) Britain
2. Roald Dahl was named after a famous ...	b) England
3. Wales is in the west of	c) pilot
4. Roald Dahl went to a famous school in ...	d) Libya
5. He worked for Shell Petroleum in ...	e) Africa
6. During the war he learned to be a ...	f) adults
7. He crashed his aeroplane in the desert in ...	g) Norway
8. He wrote stories for children and ...	h) explorer

Roald Dahl said that people in his stories must be interesting. They must not be like ordinary people. They must be very bad, or very nasty or very ugly. Choose one of the adjectives from the box. Draw a picture and write a story about a person who is very _____. Look in your dictionary if you don't know these words.

thin	untidy	clever	hungry	hairy
dirty	unfashionable	unlucky	dishonest	tall

